Uniform Player Contract

Entered into the _____ day of _____, 20____ between the parties whose signatures appear below, the first hereinafter known as “Player,” the second hereinafter known as “Team,” and the third being the National Baseball Congress.

It is understood between the parties hereto that mutual promises of each party to this agreement shall be full and complete consideration for this contract.

The player whose signature appears below agrees that he will, for a period following date hereof, be a member of Cotton Kings Team of Casa Grande, Arizona, unless said player may be released by the team manager as hereinafter provided.

This agreement may be terminated at any time at the will of the authorized team official, and the player may be released by said manger filling out and mailing to the National Baseball Congress the original copy of the official NBC release form. Upon receipt of said release, the National Baseball Congress will notify said player that he is a free agent by a signed copy of his release. Until player receives a signed copy of said release from the National Baseball Congress, he is not eligible to participate for any other NBC affiliated team.

This agreement shall be executed in triplicate with official copy forwarded to the National Baseball Congress. Upon receiving said agreement, the National Baseball Congress shall first check player’s eligibility status and then certify him for play.

The undersigned manager upon signing this agreement, certifies to the said player and to the National Baseball Congress that he adheres to the NCAA Summer Baseball Eligibility Rules, and further certifies that no player on above named team receives any financial remuneration except that which is allowed under NCAA rules. In the event the undersigned player or manager knowingly violates the intent of this agreement, by becoming affiliated with another NBC team without having been properly released from this agreement of signing above player while knowing he is not a legal free agent, will be subject by the National Baseball Congress to a suspension for a period of two years from participation in any tournament or league affiliated with the National Baseball Congress. It is further understood that any NBC affiliated team may protest the eligibility of any NBC player in his league or any NBC sanctioned tournaments. Any team protesting a player’s eligibility must post a $50.00 bond at the time of protest. If protest is allowed this bond will be promptly returned.

Good only for period September 1st through August 31st, 2012.
